A GOALTENDERS' NIGHTMARE

VANCOUVER (CP) — If Vancouver wasn't worried about the reputation of Minnesota North Stars before Tuesday night's National Hockey League game, he now is.
Hanson saw his once-impressive 273 goals-against average go down the drain during a goaltenders' nightmare which ended in a 7-1 tie between the Canucks and the Stars.

at both ends of the ice. Netminder Gary Edwards of the North Stars didn't fare much better in stopping 26 shots.
"Minnesota doesn't seem to have much of a reputation next to the likes of Boston Bruins, New York Islanders and New York Rangers, let us we've played during the last week," said Hanson. "It was in my preparation for the game and it sure showed."

should be much improved down the line," Neale said. "That's about the only positive thing from this game because we made so many mistakes defensively."
Hanson was far from sharp and his defencemen, especially Dennis Kearns and Harold Snepata, made numerous glaring errors. Snepata once passed the puck into the net and Hanson's goal post intercepted to score an incredibly easy goal, first of the season.

Sutter wins pitching award

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago Cubs reliever Bruce Sutter, who tied the National League record for saves with 37 last season, today was named winner of the NL Cy Young award for 1979.
Sutter, who came within one save of the major league best record by Toronto's Steve Nouri, pitched for the Cubs in 1979, narrowly defeated 21 game winner Orelowitz of Houston Astros in 1978.
Sutter, who earned nine All-Star votes and Richard's 1974 and Sparky Lyle of New York Yankees took the American League honor in 1977.

Players milled about on the floor of the arena. An embattled leader 'doffed his garments, removed his hat and attempted to 'sue a glass barrier.'
The incident took place midway through the third period of a National Hockey League game held at Atlanta and resulted in expulsion of nine persons — four players from each team and Winnipeg coach Tom McVie.

two goals as did Ivan Boldv.
Mark Howe scored once. His 61-year-old father, Gordie, scored his sixth of the year. Gordie's goal came during a four-goal Hartford blitz in the second period and Colored never recovered.
The win was the third to go with the Jets in the last four games for the former WHA team against established NHL clubs.
And while Whalers coach Don Blackburn admitted his charges were getting more confidence each time out, Rockies coach Don Cherry was showing his frustrations. He chased into the stands after a header and had to be restrained by an arena attendant.
Cherry is in his first year behind the Colorado bench after a successful stand in Boston.
Islanders 4 Kings 1
Dave Langstaff, Bryan Trotter and John Tomm made swift work of the Kings in the opening period and the New Yorkers never did let the visitors get started.
" Mistakes by us gave them their first three goals," said Los Angeles veteran Colored Dionne, who moved into the league's top-scoring lead with the Kings' only goal — his 15th of the year.
The Islanders, however, did manage to muzzle Dionne's linemates, something few teams have been able to accomplish this year.

B.C. mining paid over $192 million in taxes last year.

During 1978, the B.C. mining industry paid over $110 million in taxes to our province, plus more than $69 million in federal taxes. Mining taxation is also felt at the local level...with over $13 million in municipal taxes paid by the industry last year.
That's a total of over $192 million, or about $75 for every British Columbian. As an important source of tax revenues for our province—and as a large scale job-producer—mining is a major contributor to the B.C. economy.
