No snow unusual

By SMOKEY TRUMBLY
WINTER PLAYGROUND MINUTES AWAY
The general topic amongst Okanagan residents so far this winter is the 'no snow' situation. You cannot remember a winter with so little of the white stuff at this late date into the winter season.

For those who may not know the access route to Dee Lake from Lavington way, take highway No. 6, to Lavington, turn right at Park Lane, and left at the first intersection. You are now on the Dee Lake main road. At the bottom of the hill where you enter the forest, you will notice logging truck 'warning signs'.

WEEKEND FOR TWO WEEKLY
Starting January 20, Dee Lake Lodge will offer a weekend for two winterers throughout the remaining winter season. Applications for this draw of winners will appear in 'THE SCENE' MAGAZINE, an insert in the Vernon Daily News each Friday.

WEEKEND FOR TWO WEEKLY
Dee Lake Lodge is located in a wilderness setting on the shores of Dee Lake. A chain of lakes all joined to Dee Lake, offers more than eleven miles of groomed country skiing trails. Other cross-country ski trails through forest with a view of the mountains are also set aside for exclusive use.

Rookie John Newberry set one scoring record and tied another Wednesday night as the rich got richer and the poor got poorer in the Coastal Division of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League.

SNOWFEST BONSPIEL
Lumby teams dominated the first round of the world figure skating championships Wednesday night. Jim Dewar of Lumby led his foursome past Capitol Motors of Vernon, Lumby's Dewey Thompson beat Bruce Tanaka of Vernon and Irwin Dilts of Lumby was victorious over Tom Alwesser of Lumby. In an all-Vernon match-up, place Bellingham Blazers knocked off sixth-place North Vancouver Caps 4-4.

MEGVEE, France (AP) - Oliver Hoener of Switzerland took the lead after compulsory figures in the men's competition at the world junior figure skating championships Wednesday.

He did it all better than I expected... I'm pretty happy," said Boyd, the daughter of Sandy and Molly Boyd, owner of Hillcum Valley Ski Area. Boyd picked sixth in the moguls, 11th in the ballet and eighth in aerials to finish seventh overall in the first meet.

RETURN AS STARTER
We'll be up in their faces just about all day," said Thomas, who missed half the season with a knee injury and returned as a starter in the Rams' 9-0 shutout of Tampa Bay in the National Conference championship game Wednesday before the team

Georgetti guides Elks to victory

By KEVIN MITCHELL
Daily News Writer
With a name as common as snow in Florida, Bucky Georgetti is the target of many jokes.

Referred to by some of his teammates as the man from 'Little Italy' (Trali), Georgetti also receives several jokes about his Bobby Lalonde-type stature.

But, after Wednesday night's North Okanagan Hockey League game in Enderby, the jokes turned into praises as Georgetti backstopped the Grindrod Elks to a 6-4 victory.

"How many powerplays did you stop Bucky?" asked Elks' assistant captain Jim Sparrow.

"Gez, I don't really know Jimmy," replied Georgetti, who then recalled, "They had three in the first, two in the second and none in the third."

His calculation of stopping five clear breakaways was correct. Georgetti was the major stumbling block for a very spirited effort by the Raiders.

When asked about Georgetti's first star performance, Elks home coach Dangel simply replied, "I know how to handle himself."

And he did for it, but the final 11:11 of the third period when he was replaced by Tom Alwesser and backup netminder Leon Nowek.

Georgetti was forced to leave the game because of a hard shot from the point boke three rivets on my shoulder. Nowek stopped five shots while allowing one goal, while Georgetti turned aside 35 drives.

Field captain Fred Parent stole the puck at the Elks' blueline and on a set-and-go play, Elks' assistant coach Dangel, who was playing with a good dose of Raiders forecheck the Elks into a scrambling game.

passing game and took a 1-0 lead after the opening frame. Elks then turned on their scoring machine and exploded for five goals in the rather wide open second period.

Ron Haggard beat Raider goalie Mike Smithson after just 20 seconds of the second session and was followed by markers from Harold Fitzpatrick, Bill Haggard, Willy Madden and Rick Harris.

Harris scored the prettiest goal of the evening as he took a pass from Sparrow at centre ice, walked around Raider defenceman and blasted a easiest goal of the game in the third period when he made a flanking rush and scored from a bad angle on a shot he actually fanned on.

"I was going for the top corner," said Harris, whose shot completely fooled Smithson.

Guy Davison collected two goals and an assist for the Raiders, while Gary Moore scored once.

Raiders received six minors and drew fighting as well while the Elks were assessed 11 minors and the same number of majors.

ON THE BENCH: Dangel was somewhat upset with the scheduling of the Wednesday night game. "It cost us $39 to play this game," said Dangel. "A spare crowd was on hand for the contest."

Daniel Sparrow, 26, of department, Sparrow edged Dan Carto, Wally Bevan and Bill Haggard and Frank Fitzpatrick of the Elks drew with Mark Watt.

Maurice Bianelli appears to be a welcome addition to the Raider defence. A former Kelowna Packer, he picked up two assists while getting loads of ice-time. Geoff Collins earned two assists as Jay Sparrow for the Elks.

Hunter has resigned as playing-coach of the Packers. Hunter quit Wednesday after the Raiders' newly elected executive adopted a new rule stating no player-coaches were allowed. Vernon Cougars play a make-up game in Salmon Arm against the Aces tonight. Elks' clash with Revelstoke Sunday has been cancelled because of the Super Bowl.

Vernon to host ice races
Round four of the British Columbia Motorcycle Ice Race Championship Series will be held Sunday on Swan Lake.

The event is sponsored by the Vernon Motorcycle Club and sanctioned by the Canadian Motorcycle Association.

about 50 riders, including 20 from the Vernon area, are expected to compete in the race. Sign-up is at 9 a.m., practice runs at 10 a.m., and racing starts at 11 a.m.

Chris Reid, president of the Vernon club, told the Daily News there will be good facilities for spectators. Reid said, "We'd like to encourage people to come out to watch. Access to the course area is easy off Highway 97, across from Tri-Lake Lincoln Mercury."

Several local riders are doing well so far in the series. John Shumyk is the 2000 cc expert class, Russ Angrin in the 125cc expert class, and Frank Fitzpatrick in the senior open class are among the top competitors.
