Jets left alone in NHL basement

Washington Capitals won the battle of the National Hockey League cellar-dwellers Friday night, defeating the Jets 6-3 in Winnipeg and leaving the first-year team all alone in last place in the 21-team league.

MacNeil: "In the Oml, we're probably so anxious to please that we tend to tighten up unconsciously and we end up being stiff and frustrated."

Washington and Colorado each have 37 points. The Jets have 35 and, barring late-season miracles, all three teams can kiss the playoffs goodbye.

Cap's coach Gary Green said the win gives his team a bit of momentum on its current road trip.

"We've played very well at home - we've only lost two out of the last 10," he said. "But, on the road, we haven't been very effective."

U.S. fighting to move Olympics

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (Reuter) - The Olympic flame burned in this peaceful mountain resort today as U.S. officials fought to force this summer's Olympic Games out of Moscow.

The IOC's executive board will study an appeal submitted Friday by Robert Kane, U.S. Olympic Committee executive director, who formally urged the Summer Games be held at a site other than Moscow.

He charged that a military invasion of Afghanistan by the Soviet Union had violated fundamental principles that the Games should be held in an atmosphere of peace.

Czechs thump Canada in exhibition hockey

MONTREAL (CP) - The Canadian Olympic hockey team suffered a 5-1 loss to Czechoslovakia in the final pre-Games exhibition Friday night, but coach Clarence Drake didn't appear excessively upset.

He had quite a young team, and many of them were in the Forum for the first time," said Drake, who shares the coaching job with Tom Watt and Lorne Davis.

That's a complete surprise. We proved that we could play with them. We just weren't as ready to play them as we were when we beat them 6-3 at Calgary last weekend."

Beau fires record 63 at Hawaiian tourney

HONOLULU (AP) - Andy Beau led the competitive course record with a 63 Friday and said he should have been better.
