A Tribute To

Dr. Gwenth Lloyd, O.C.,
and Mrs. Betty Farrelly

In recognition of their great contribution to dance in the Okanagan Valley, British Columbia, and to Canada, the Gwenth Lloyd and Betty Farrelly Endowment Fund has been established with the purpose of both honouring and assisting to continue the work and lifetime achievements of these two great Canadians.

Honorary Patron: Dame Margot Fonteyn.

The main objective of the Fund is to create a capital trust, the income from which will be applied to help further the training of exceptionally talented young dancers with promise who intend to make a career in dance.

Donors and pledges in any amount will be accepted and should be made payable to the "Gwenth Lloyd and Betty Farrelly Endowment Fund" and sent to:

Mr. Roysse, Bazel, C.A. Honorary Treasurer,
The Canadian Okanagan Foundation,
c/o 1441 St. Paul Street,
Kelowna, British Columbia, V1Y 2E4

Charitable donation receipts will be issued on request.

George Steinbrenner, the Yankees' owner, told reporters Thursday he was appalled in Guidry. "He should have known that he should not have taken part," Steinbrenner said. "It jeopardized me at all," Guidry said. "Only the obstacle course had any dangers."

Guidry acknowledged that when he decided to take part in the TV venture in the Bahamas, which involves leading athletes, he was treading on language in his contract.
