Richard leads Astros to win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

On a night when he came within two and two-thirds innings of joining the likes of Bob Feller and Tom Seaver in baseball history, uppermost in J. Richard's mind was not waiting around for the Dodgers in 13 Pullet did it with Cleveland Indians in 1960 when he beat Chicago White Sox in opening day, 1960.

The Astros scored in the first inning on a solo homer by Willie Randolph and Alan Ashby cracked an RBI single.

While Richard was throwing strikes, Houston Astros manager, Tom Post, was throwing the game away for New York Yankees in the American League.

The 6-foot-8 Richard struck out 15 before getting relief in the ninth from Joe Sambito, but more importantly he did not walk a batter. Including spring training, the hard-throwing right-hander has gone 2-1 with 10 strikeouts in 17 innings without yielding a free pass.

"I think this was the best night I've had since I was in the minor leagues," said Richard, who walked 98 batters last season compared with 143 in 1979. "I just getting the ball over the plate was my secret."

Early last night Richard's bid for a no-hitter, grounding a single in the first and second innings, was ended by a double and a home run by Tom Underwood.

Showering error by Astros third baseman Gene Cabell and catcher Steve Gossage ended the bid for a no-hitter.

Montreal Expos' favorite in the National League East Division, open to the 1980 baseball season tonight.

The Expos open with Ron Leffort in left field and Larry Herndon in right field. Leffort was translated from the outfield to first base.

Leffort was obtained at baseball's winter meeting in Toronto last December from Detroit Tigers for left-hand pitcher Dan Schatzeder.

Leffort, a 275 hitter in 1979, was moved to first because Tom Perez played out his option and signed a new option contract with Boston Red Sox.

The Expos also are without pitcher Steve Williams who right-hander Steve Rogers scheduled to pitch the opener.

Rogers was 13-12 last season and 2-1 against Philadelphia.

The rest of the Expos' team lines up with Andre Dawson and Ellis Valentine in the outfield, second baseman Rodney Scott, shortstop Chris Speier, third baseman Larry Parrish and catcher Gary Carter.

Manager Dallas Green, is leading with his ace, left-hander Steve Carlton, 15-11 in 1979, 1-0 against Montreal and 18-15 against Philadelphia.

Expos. After Carlton, the Phillies have a staff of pitchers. They can start one of the best in the game, but pitching could be their Achilles heel.

Green said he'll lead with first baseman Pete Rose, and follow in order with right fielder Mike Schmidt, centre fielder Jerry Maddox, third baseman Mike Schmidt, Luzinski, catcher Bob Boone and second baseman Manny Trillo.
