OVERCOMES PENALTY
MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) — Darrell Waltrip overcame a two-lap penalty and charged back from four laps down to win the $140,000 Virginia 500 Grand National stock car race Sunday. Waltrip came across the finish line a few car lengths ahead of Benny Parsons as the weather-plagued race finished under a caution flag. Richard Petty was third, followed by Cale Yarborough and Joe Millikan. The new tire rule, imposing a two-lap penalty on cars changing tires during caution periods at Grand National short-track races, took its toll.
