Red Sox nip Kansas City

Jack Brohamer had never before faced Dan Quisenberry, Kansas City's sidewinding relief pitcher, so he wasn't about to try anything fancy.

"I was just trying to get it in the air," he said. "But to be truthful, I should have hit the first pitch."

Instead, he hit the second, smacking a single into centre field that scored Carlton Fisk from second base and gave Boston Red Sox a 6-5, 11-inning American League baseball victory over Kansas City Royals.

Fisk had led off the Boston 11th with a double and was sacrificed to third by Dwight Evans. As it turned out, Brohamer's single was not only the game-winning hit, but the Red Sox' first pinch hit of the year.

Jamie Quirk, filling in for the injured George Brett at third base for the Royals, unloaded a two-run home run off starter Mike Torrez in the seventh to forge a 5-5 tie. Torrez, who remains 0-3 for the year, had just been given a 5-3 lead by Fred Lynn's two-run double in the Boston seventh. Skip Lockwood, 2-1, the third Red Sox pitcher, got the victory.

Elsewhere in the AL, Cleveland Indians dropped Toronto Blue Jays 6-1, Milwaukee Brewers bombed Chicago White Sox 8-0, Baltimore Orioles trimmed Texas Rangers 7-5, California Angels defeated Seattle Mariners 3-1, New York Yankees downed Minnesota Twins 9-6 and Oakland A's defeated Detroit Tigers 10-6.

STANDING OVATION

Royals Stadium was the scene of one of the most emotional moments in Kansas City's sports history. Darrell Porter pinch hit for U.L. Washington in the sixth inning and got a thunderous, standing ovation from the crowd of almost 26,000.

Porter, last year's starting catcher for the AL in the all-star game, was making his first appearance of the season after returning from a six-week drug and alcohol rehabilitation program.

"I never thought they would disown me," said Porter. "But I never thought they would receive me so warmly. The people have been just super. I can't thank them enough for accepting me."

Indians 6 Blues Jays 1

Len Barker and Mike Stanton combined on a two-hitter and Tom Veryzer drove home two runs with a double in Cleveland's four-run second inning to pace the Indians to the victory. Toronto, after climbing to first place in their division, have lost three in a row. Dave Stieb took the loss, his first after three consecutive complete-game wins.

Brewers 8 White Sox 0

Sal Bando drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a double and Ben Ogilvie delivered a double and two singles to lead Milwaukee. Mike Caldwell, 3-1, scattered seven hits to post the Brewers' first shutout of the season. Ken Kravec, 1-2, took the loss although five of the seven runs he allowed were unearned.

Orioles 7 Rangers 5

Doug DeCinces and Lee May hit consecutive two-run doubles in the eighth inning to spark a five-run rally that gave Baltimore the victory, with Mike Flanagan, 3-2, on the mound. Texas had two-run homers from Al Oliver in the first and Jim Sundberg in the seventh but it wasn't enough.

Angels 3 Mariners 1

Dave Frost pitched a five-hitter and Rod Carew singled with two out in the bottom of the seventh to drive in Tom Donohue and help California to the home-field victory. Frost, 3-2, walked three and struck out four in pitching his second complete game of the season.

Yankees 9 Twins 6

Reggie Jackson and pinch hitter Jim Spencer hit two-run home runs and Ron Guidry won his first game of the year for New York. Ken Landreaux had four hits and drove in four runs for Minnesota.

A's 10 Tigers 6

Tony Armas drove in four runs, including three with a seventh-inning homer, to help lift Oakland to first place in the West Division.

Philadelphia explodes against L.A. reliever

Charlie Hough is one of the stoppers in the Los Angeles Dodger bullpen but the only thing he stopped Friday night was a 10-game Dodger winning streak.

Wildly erratic, the usual artful Dodger walked the bases loaded in the eighth inning, opening the gates for a four-run Philadelphia rally and the Phillies went on to cool off the hot Dodgers 9-5 in a National League baseball game.

The Dodgers' right-handed knuckleball specialist allowed the first run by a Los Angeles reliever in the last 11 games, covering 16 2-3 innings.

That happened when Hough gave up Greg Gross's two-run single after walking the bases loaded. Bake McBride later singled home the final two runs of the rally.

Elsewhere in the NL, Atlanta Braves defeated Pittsburgh Pirates 6-1, St. Louis Cardinals walloped Houston Astros 9-1, Chicago Cubs bombed Cincinnati Reds 12-4 in 12 innings, San Diego Padres blanked New York Mets 1-0 and Montreal Expos turned back San Francisco Giants 4-3.

The Dodgers had rallied from a 5-2 deficit after the second delay of the long, rain-soaked game, scoring one run in the seventh and two more in the eighth off reliever Ron Reed.

In the Dodger seventh, with two out, consecutive doubles by Rick Monday and Davey Lopes made it 5-3. Reggie Smith opened the Los Angeles eighth with a walk and scored as Steve Garvey slammed a game-tying home run over the right-centre field wall.

Expos 6 Pirates 1

Phil Niekro scattered seven hits for his first victory of the season and Chris Chambliss and Jeff Burroughs each drove in a pair of runs as Atlanta defeated Pittsburgh. Niekro, who had lost his first four starts, allowed the only Pirate run in the second inning on Phil Garner's RBI single.

The Pirates committed four errors as the Braves won their first road game of the season after eight losses.

Cardinals 9 Astros 1

Ted Simmons snapped a 1-1 tie with a sacrifice fly in the sixth inning and then lashed a three-run homer to cap a seven-run seventh as St. Louis beat Houston.

Cubs 12 Reds 4

Pinch-hitter Mike Vail blasted a three-run triple to key an eight-run 12th inning as Chicago routed Cincinnati. The Cubs scored twice prior to Vail's triple on RBI singles by Ivan DeJesus and Dave Kingman, and came up with three more following Vail's hit on an RBI single by Mike Tyson and tworun homer by Lenny Randle, batting for the second time in the inning. Bruce Sutter won in relief and Tom Hume was the loser, also in relief.

Padres 1 Mets 0

Catcher John Stearns's bad throw during a second-inning rundown enabled Willie Montanez to score from third and give San Diego its victory over New York.
