Wall Trentini hooks his son, Rod, during an exhibition hockey game Sunday at the Civic Arena.

Okanagan Hockey League, defeated Vernon Oilers 13-6 in an entertaining confrontation. The teams used overtime rules, which do not permit slapshots or bodychecking.

Ottimers trailed 2-1 at the end of the first period before the old legs got a little weary.

The B.C. Junior Hockey League season has gone from bad, to worse, for Vernon Lakers.

Lakers were humiliated in a pair of BCHJL weekend games. On Saturday, Vernon Kelowna Buckaroos pounded Lakers 19-6, and Sunday in Merritt, the Centennials blanked Vernon 10-0.

Last-place Lakers have nine games remaining and General Manager Hank Aarsen said the biggest problem facing him is getting a team together for the last month of the season.

"We want to finish the year," he said, "but it is up to the players."

GOALIE QUIT Goal tender Mark Lang quit the club after Saturday's loss, leaving Lakers without a netminder.

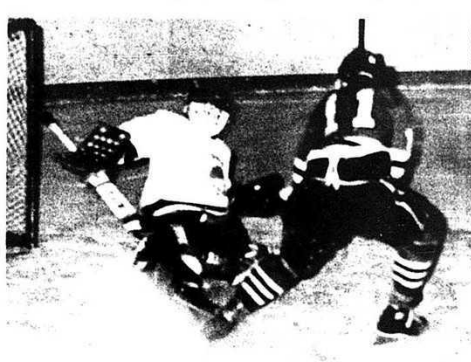

and Bob Morden collected a single Bodnaruk, who also had two assists, and Poirier were the best of Vernon's squads.

Lang started the game, but was relieved by Aarsen in the second period.

On Sunday, Rich Norberg and Mark Blondin each scored two goals to lead the Centennials.

Due to injuries and players quitting, only 13 Lakers made the trip.

The Vernon GM said, "I want to make one thing clear... I'm proud of the boys who are sticking with us. I want to see us finish the season for those guys who aren't then quit."

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD netminder Hank Aarsen Jr. was thrown to the wolves by Vernon Lakers in his B.C. Junior Hockey League debut over the weekend. Aarsen played more than a period during Vernon's 19-6 loss to Kelowna Buckaroos.

Panthers out in three games

North Surrey Spartans defeated Vernon Panthers 85-79 Saturday to eliminate Panthers from the prestigious Chancellor Basketball Tournament, at St. Thomas More School, in New Westminster.

Earlier in the tourney, Vernon lost 96-76 to Windsor, and edged Burnaby South 81-80.

ARGYLE WINS Argyle Flyers, of Vancouver, beat Windsor in the championship game Saturday night.

Vernon Coach Deloy Routley told the Daily News his club could have downed the eighth-ranked Spartans "We beat ourselves," he said. "We stayed close, but we did some dumb things on the court."

DALE OLSON honorable mention honorably mention to the all-star squad. In the three games, he scored 29 points.

ROUTLEY SAYS "Dale was one of our bright spots. He worked hard in all three games. We had him playing a low post, so most of the time he was up against guys six or seven inches taller than him."

"As a team, we were improving, but slowly. We had our best game of the year against Windsor (ranked sixth in Ontario). And we played fairly well against North Surrey."

FOUL LANGUAGE Routley and Co-Coach Jack Yamaska pulled one player off the floor, after he used foul language, and another started fouling himself sitting on the bench after committing an intentional foul.

"We played well enough to win," Routley said. "Some spots mistakes proved costly."

Dale Olson scored 26 points against Spartans and received

DALE OLSON honorable mention

ROYALS LEARN AT TOURNAMENT Vernon Royals won one of three games at the New Westminster Senior Girls Basketball Tournament over the weekend.

Royals lost to New Westminster 61-26 and Alberni 77-63, before blasting Sir Charles Tupper of Vancouver, 68-27.

Vernon Coach Ray Kimoto said the tourney was an excellent experience for his team. "I came home from the Coast with a good feeling," he said. "I think we really learned something."

A STANDOUT Lori Elliott was a standout for Royals and received honorable mention for the all-star team.

Late goal gives Cobras victory

Pat Ballour scored with one second remaining in the game to give Super Cut Cobras a 1-0 win over Screaming Lizards in the opening minute of the Super Cut League action Saturday at the Priest Valley Arena.

In another game, Coldstream Hall Eagles blasted Ballhursters 5-0.

Eagles and Cobras are tied for first-place, however, Coldstream has a game-in-hand.

CONSTANT PRESSURE Lizards' goalie Rae Slaven was under constant pressure throughout the game. In the dying seconds, Slaven blocked a shot by Ballour, but the rebound

Lumby suffers setback

National Hotel Raiders strengthened their hold on first-place in the White Valley Hockey League with a 7-3 win over Lumby Flying Frenchmen on Saturday, in Lumby.

Wally Fisher led the National attack with two goals while Bill Stauchhammer, Jim Draper, Jeff Todd, Graydon Brown, and Darryl Slizak added singles.

League play resumes Wednesday with a doubleheader, in Lumby, at 7 p.m. Lakeside Whalers face Flying Frenchmen, and at 9 p.m., Raiders take on Lotus.

Maroons unbeaten at tourney

Fallou Maroons won the Okanagan Classic Junior Boys' Basketball Tournament over the weekend at Dr. Knox School, in Kelowna.

Maroons won three consecutive games, in the two-day event.

After beating OK Mission 61-50 in overtime, Maroons had little trouble defeating George Pringle of Westbank, 63-41, and Princess Margaret, of Penticton, 66-32.

Against Pringle, Rob Barton led the Fulton attack with 13 points in 18 rebounds.

In the final game, Dave Abersek and Dave Marshall sunk 19 points each for Maroons while Mark Polyzaris grabbed eight rebounds.
