WINTER CARNIVAL SPORTS

Something for everyone

KENDALL'S KORNER

One up, one down

In five years, the hockey careers of former Vernon junior hockey star Don Murdoch and Eddie Johnstone have come a complete reversal.

PLAYED IN WHA

After serving an apprenticeship with Michigan Stags, and later Baltimore Blades, of the World Hockey Association, Eddie felt he was ready for the NHL.

DRUG CHARGES

The following year, there was an unfortunate incident involving Murdoch. He was gamed and searched by customs personnel at Toronto International Airport.

NOW A STAR

On the other hand, Johnstone is now a star. He has 23 points, including 18 goals, and will be Rangers' representative at the NHL all-star game next week in Los Angeles.

Club to host 10-fight card

Vernon Boxing Club will hold a fight card Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the club gym.
