Willie enjoys going to work

Willie Stargell is a lucky man. He makes his living doing something he enjoys... Stargell, who led Pittsburgh Pirates to the 1979 World Series, is in Vernon for two days as a special guest of Winter Carnival.

There was a lot of publicity given to the "Family Atmosphere" on the Pirates in 1979. Last year, with the trade of pitcher Bert Blyleven and Dave Parker, asking to be traded, the "Family" appeared to have some problems. What caused them? "All families have problems. We had problems in 1979... and we dealt with them. When you struggle and then accomplish, then you are appreciated."

FREE AGENT Stargell signed with Pirates in 1962, as a free agent. After establishing himself as one of the top sluggers in baseball, his career appeared to be nearing an end in the mid 1970s. However, in 1978 he was named Comeback Player of the Year; and in 1979 he was Most Valuable Player in the National League and the World Series.

BIG MONEY Is Dave Winfield worth the big money New York Yankees are paying him? "I feel sorry for Winfield. I don't know if he will be able to enjoy playing. People are going to look at him through a microscope. Thirty home runs and 100 runs batted-in won't be good enough... What is your opinion on platooning, using right-handed batters against left-handed pitchers, and vice-versa?"

POWER NEEDED Is baseball changing, with more emphasis being placed on speed? "Baseball goes in cycles. All the speed in the world won't help if you can't get on base. You can't steal first base in the World Series. Philadelphia kept Willie Wilson off base and that stopped Kansas City. You still need the threat of power... What will Pirates do in the 1981 season? "You guess it as good as mine. Our chances are good, if we do the right things. I can't predict what changes will be made... I'm just a player."

Winger returns to line-up

Right winger Gary Gilchrist will be in the lineup tonight when Veron Cougars host the Grindrod Elks in the first game of an elimination round that will determine the two NOHL finalists.

Veron Coach Gary Swanson said Friday, that Gilchrist, who has been out for 12 weeks with a broken heel, will play on a line with Wayne Dye and John Box.

Gilchrist may see limited action tonight, as Swanson lets him work into shape gradually. "He has a few days to go yet," he said, "I don't want to rush him too hard."

The rest of the team is healthy, and Swanson said they are well prepared for Grindrod. Cougars play Elks back-to-back this weekend, travelling to Enderby Sunday, and Swanson is determining the eventual winner of the month long round robin eliminations.

He thinks Grindrod is toughest of the three remaining NOHL teams, he said. "You have to play them really carefully. If they get a lead on you, then they are a hard team to come back against."

He said the series promises to be entertaining and expects the Cougars to do well. "We should win it."

On Sunday, at 7 p.m., Veron hosts Penitence Knights. Rod Rotherman, David Popichak, Bob Kashaba and Lake Hillsiders will be from the Veron juvenile reps, will play for Lakers.

Goalie joins Lakers

Vernon Lakers will have a new netminder between the pipes tonight when they face the Rockets, in Revelstoke.

Terry Wilson joined the team this week. Wilson was cut during Veron's training camp and has been playing with an Edmonton juvenile club.

He will remain with Lakers for four games. Veron has been without a netminder since Mark Lang quit last week.
