LOOK BACK FIVE YEARS

FEBRUARY, 1976

Lumby recorded its first win of the season Monday be defeating Armstrong Shop-Easy 74-63 in Commercial Men's Basketball League action at Vernon Senior Secondary School.

FEBRUARY, 1976

Vernon junior boys will be representing the Okanagan Zone in the British Columbia Youth Bowling Congress championships March 13 in Cranbrook, after beating Osoyoos 2,818 pins to 2,490.

NO SPONSORS

Boyd to quit freestyle tour

By DON KENDALL
Daily News Sports Editor

Just two years ago, Vernon's Sue Boyd was considered one of the top prospects on the World Cup Freestyle Tour.

Now, Boyd plans to give up freestyle skiing after this season.

"It costs too much money to compete and you don't get anything back," said the 19-year-old redhead.

IN EUROPE

Europe hosted the first leg of the World Cup tour, which started in December. Next two events are scheduled in Eastern Canada, with the tour slated to move west in March.

Boyd was unable to obtain a corporate sponsorship this year so her first competition will be March 19, at Banff.

On March 26, she'll ski at Steamboat Springs, Colo. and then compete in the World Cup finals April 3-5 at Blackcomb Ski Area, near Whistler Mountain.

NOW AMATEURS

Freestyle skiers competing on the tour were reinstated as amateurs this season with the hope that the sport will be included in the 1988 Olympics. As a result, no prize money is being paid to competitors.

"With no sponsor and no prize money, I couldn't afford to do a lot of travelling," Boyd said.

Last year, Boyd was ranked fourth among female freestyle skiers. In moguls, she placed second, behind Toronto's Stephanie Sloane.

Although she hasn't been competing on the tour, Boyd has not been idle and feels she can do well in the upcoming events.

AT WHISTLER

"I've been doing a lot of skiing at Whistler," she said. "I'm living there and conditions have been good most of the winter."

Boyd was also a member of the Blizzard Ski Demonstration Team which visited 10 B.C. ski areas, including Silver Star.

"I might bet back into ski racing next year ... I've always liked racing," she said. "But before I start thinking about that, I want to do well in my last three freestyle events."

OVER SALMON ARM

Solid defensive effort gives Panthers victory

Vernon Panthers (4-4) moved into a tie for second-place in the Okanagan High School Basketball League with a 59-54 win over Salmon Arm Golds, Friday, at Vernon Senior Secondary School.

Panthers are tied with Kamloops Red Devils and Penticton Lakers, two points back of first-place North Kamloops Saints.

Lance Page led the Vernon attack with 22 points while Dale Olson sunk 11 and Pat Paul added 10.

Olson grabbed 15 rebounds and Page pulled down 11.

PROVIDED SPARK

But, the player who provided a spark for Panthers was Jeff Baerg. Baerg came off the bench when Paul got into foul trouble. In only 11 minutes of playing time, the 6'4" forward scored five points and clutched seven rebounds.

Vernon Coach Jack Yamaoka said, "Jeff did a great job. He gave us that extra lift when we needed it."

It was the first game this year Panthers have held their opponents below 70 points. "Our guys played with intensity on defence," Yamaoka said. "It was a fine defensive effort."

Panthers held quarter leads of 24-16, 35-24 and 51-40.

Panthers conclude the regular season schedule next week with trips to Penticton and Kelowna.

ROYALS LOSE

Meanwhile, Salmon Arm Jewels defeated Vernon Royals 52-43 in girls' action.

Shelly Green led Jewels with 18 points while Monique Boudier added 16.

Lori Elliott replied with 17 points for Royals.

Vernon Coach Ray Kimoto said, "Jewels are a fundamentally sound team. We played well, but not good enough to beat them."

Girls' playoffs are slated to get under way Thursday with Royals tentatively scheduled to meet Kamloops Red Angels.

COME HERE CUTIE

Not quite sure what he is facing, Benjie Christensen of Vernon Pumas keeps a close eye on Scaggie Maggie, of California Cuties, who played an exhibition basketball game this week at VSSS. Another Puma, Rob Collingridge, looks on in disbelief. About 100 people were at the game. (Daily News Photo)

Lakers' losing streak extended to 16 games

Penticton Knights edged Vernon Lakers 3-1 in B.C. Junior Hockey League action Friday in Penticton.

It was Vernon's best performance in several weeks, but not quite good enough to stop its losing streak which now stands at 16 games.

Glen Hampton gave Lakers a 1-0 lead in the first period.

Barry Huber tied the score in the second period and Dave Hardie got the winner, for Knights, at 2:49 of the third period.

Hardie added an insurance goal, with just three seconds remaining in the game, after Vernon had pulled goalie Mark Lang in favor of a sixth attacker.

Lang, who rejoined the team this week after quitting in January, was outstanding. He blocked 42 shots, including at least a dozen from point blank range.

Lakers' Director Al Thomas said he was pleased with his club's effort, despite the loss.

"We gave Penticton all it could handle," he said. "Our guys never stopped hustling. We had a couple good chances to tie the score, in the final minute, before Knights put the puck in the mpty net."

On Thursday, Vernon was trounced 10-4 by Merritt Centennials, in Logan Lake.

HOST ROCKETS

Lakers are scheduled to host Revelstoke Rockets, on Sunday, at 7 p.m.

In other BCJHL action Friday, Richmond Sockeyes survived a must-win situation by defeating Abbotsford Flyers 8-3 to tie their best-of-nine series at four games apiece.

Elsewhere, Kelowna blasted Merritt 5-2.

The Sockeyes were led by two-goal performances from Jeff Wilkinson, Brad Rand and Jim Thom.

Brian Inkster, Mark Eddy and Eric Thurston scored for the Flyers.

Deciding game of the series will be played Tuesday at Richmond.

At Kelowna, the Buckaroos scored four power-play goals, including two from Tom Martin. Rich Norberg and Dwaine Jurriet replied for Merritt.
