

Floyd captures Doral tourney

MIAMI (AP) — Although there's the possibility of a quarter-million dollar prize awaiting him at the Tournament Players Championship, Gary Floyd didn't want to think about it.

"I just want to cherish this for a while, a day or so, before I start thinking about what I'm going to do after this victory Sunday in the Doral Open golf tournament. It was so exciting, very rewarding."

"I'm just drained. That was 54 hours of intense pressure."

"It was match play all day (against his playing partner David Graham) but in addition to that, every time I looked at the leaderboard there were six other golfers getting close."

Floyd, 39, in 1971 was a Professional Golfers' Association tour, but he has not been successful for his 15th victory in a successful defense of the title he won a year earlier in the Blue Monster course at the Doral Country Club.

He finished under par 68 for a 72-hole score of 273 - 15 below the runner-up, Fred Beckwith, who had tied the lead with Graham at one point in the tournament, before being pressured by Gil Morgan, Tom Kite, Leonard Thompson and Keith Frazier.

The triumph was worth $45,000 from the total prize fund and made Floyd eligible for a $250,000 bonus prize if he wins the tournament Players Championship.

Graham, a former PGA champion and winner at Phoenix earlier this season, tied with Floyd for second at 274. Each player was awarded $7.5 million in the warm, sunny weather.

Kite was next at 275 after a 67, while Thompson shot 68 and Beckwith shot 69. Dan Halldorsson, who finished to a 75 Sunday and finished at 274, 17 strokes back of the leader - and won $58,000. Dave Barr and Kelowna, B.C., had a 74, while Kite was in at 74.5.

Kate Nicklaus failed to make the cut.

Floyd's victory negated the $500,000 bonus prize award by the sponsors of Inverrary, Doral and TPC tournaments for 1974, which he swept all three titles.

Kite won at Inverrary and could have claimed $200,000 with a victory here, a bonus that goes to a player who wins all three titles in succession. Floyd now has a chance at that.

Floyd won from the other leaders, Kite ran out of holes. He parred the last seven holes, 16 in the 16th and 17th to claim a 67.

Morgan, Thompson and Frazier all failed at one time or another. Graham was left to challenge.

He moved into position with a 67 on the 17th hole, a birdie-birdie-birdie start of the top spot of the way.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

JUNIOR TEAM FIRES COACH

SEATTLE, Wash. (CP) — The Seattle Breakers of the Western Hockey League has fired coach Mike Miron.

Don Hamilton, team owner and general manager, said the change followed Friday night's 7-3 loss to Victoria Cougars. The team also lost 5-0 to Portland on Saturday.

He said Saturday the change was necessary because the team is virtually assured a playoff spot and "it is important that we complete our season on a high note and enter the playoffs on a string of wins."

The team with a 24-42-10 loss record currently is third in the league's Western Division, 17 points ahead of Spokane and Dan Hamilton, and 10th of 13 in overall standings.

Miron was with the Breakers for two years, joining the club when Hamilton took over ownership.

"We feel that we have more talent on the team this year than in any other season," said Hamilton. "We need a power win-loss record this season and will be facing tough competition in the playoffs."

Deputy assistant coach Mike Mesic will serve as interim coach until a new coach is named.

Ontario beats North Ontario

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Ken Buchan, skip of the Ontario rink of the 1980 world men's curling championship, said he has always been a special rival with New Brunswick's Jim Frazier.

The competitiveness emerged again Sunday, the first day of the 1975-76 curling season in Buchan and his London, Ont. rink defeated the Rick Langrick rink of Thunder Bay 8-5.

"I've had you saw some of the best curling today," said Buchan, whose rink shared over the lead with Chuck Haines of New Brunswick and the first two rounds.

"I've known Rick for a long time, but this is the first time I've had a chance to play against him. It was a good game with a lot of points."

Buchan never trailed, holding a 6-4 margin after seven ends before taking two on the ninth for the victory.

Buchan picked up his first win since 1971 when he defeated the rink of Jean Guy Rodrigue of New Brunswick from Montreal 7-5.

Unwanted goaltender leads Canucks to win

VANCOUVER (CP) — Gary Bromley, the goalie nobody in the National Hockey League wants, is just playing to prolong his career — he's playing for the dollars.

Bromley, whose sparkling 39-save performance led Vancouver Canucks to a 2-1 victory Saturday night over Buffalo Sabres, must be pleased with his cash flow when playoff time rolls around.

"I guess I just like the money. I see the dollar sign at the end of the year."

And despite Vancouver's attempts to trade him and the fact that he's been cleared waivers, Bromley is looking like money in the bank to the Canucks.

"He hasn't had a lot of action but he's a real competitor," said Darcy Roth, whose two goals provided the margin of victory.

"He played a lot of a game and if it wasn't for him, they could have had five or six goals."

Bromley had blocked 36 shots before Craig Ramsay scored the 200th goal of his 630-game NHL career with 2:49 remaining.

He came off the bench Friday night to stop 15 of 16 third-period Chicago Black Hawk shots and preserved a 5-3 Canucks victory Monday night over Philadelphia Flyers.

Bromley's performance led to a bidding war with Don Edwards of the Sabres propelled the Canucks into 10th place in the over-all standings, one point ahead of the Hawks who have played one less game.

Bromley was pressed into service when Glen Hanlon suffered a dislocated right shoulder stopping the first shot of the third period against Chicago. He will be lost for at least two weeks.

"I'm going to play my best game that I can play at the end of the year," said Bromley.

"That's what I think I'd do."

Bromley, at five wins, four losses and four ties the only Canucks netminder with a winning record, has earned the start Tuesday night here against Pittsburgh Penguins but Richard Brodeur, coming off a knee injury, will play when Vancouver moves into Quebec later in the week.

Two newcomers pace Nordiques

The Canadian Press

Dan Bouchard and Jacques Richard were the only newcomers to the NHL who were in the lineup of the Quebec Nordiques when they were introduced to the league last night.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Richard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Bouchard, who had played 15 games in the minor leagues, was named the starting goaltender.

Keeping three goaltenders sharp and happy is impossible

WASSTAR — "Bromley was the star in a game when both goaltenders were very long because one of them always seems to get hurt," said Canucks coach Harry Neale.

Edwards said his club lacked a better chance of getting a contract with the Canucks.

"Who knows? He might be the No. 1 goaltender after tonight."

In his shoutout attempt, Bromley, 30, was aided by some workmanlike defensive play from his team-mates who were shelved 1:2 Tuesday by Calgary Flames.

Bromley, who increased his goal production to 27, ended 27 minutes of restless defensive hockey by scooping the puck from a prope Edwards who left a rebound directly in front after stopping a goal attempt by Bob Schmeitz.

The goal came after Bromley felled Sabres winger Steve Gaudin with a goal-mouth dive and made a sparkling glove grab of a Larry Flyairer backhand.

After the goal, Edwards, who finished with 23 saves, was called upon to outguess all three Vancouver centres: Theodore Gradin, Ivan Boldirev and Perve Brassar — during the second period.

Rota made it 2-0 five minutes into the third period by tipping the puck into the net, but was just out of the reach of the stretched Edwards.

In RIGHT PLACE — "It just happened to be in the right spot at the right time," said Rota. "Other guys could have scored goals but it was just my night, that's all."

Ramsay's milestone marker came after Andre Savard's hard work controlling the puck behind the net that enabled the

Black Hawks 3-2 jets

Persistent forechecking was Chicago's forte against hapless Winnipeg. Detenacmon Doug Wilson scored twice for Chicago as the Hawks shelved Jette Goals Markus Mattsson with 50 shots, 28 in the third period.

Wayne Gretzky's 50th goal of the season tied the contest for Edmonton as both coaches matched strengths in the game at Calgary. Flames coach Al MacIsaac played with Gretzky, and the Edmonton centre's only point, an assist, came on a power-play score when Nilsson was in favour of a checker.

WHEN — By The Canadian Press

Petra Burka, 18, of Toronto won the world figure skating championship 16 years ago in 1965 — at Colorado Springs, Colo. — as a 12-year-old while executing a difficult double flip. She was the first Canadian to win the singles title since Barbara Ann Scott took it in 1948 and 1949. Petra was voted the sportsman of the year.

MEMBER

WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Petra Burka, 18, of Toronto won the world figure skating championship 16 years ago in 1965 — at Colorado Springs, Colo. — as a 12-year-old while executing a difficult double flip. She was the first Canadian to win the singles title since Barbara Ann Scott took it in 1948 and 1949. Petra was voted the sportsman of the year.

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

MEMBERS & GUESTS ONLY

Blue Eagles win best in Canada

CALGARY (CP) — Moncton Blue Eagles changed their defensive line-up for a close-checking, defensive style of play in their appearance in the Canadian International Athletic Union championship.

The team, which finished second in the French-Japanese championship, ranked last of the six teams in the tournament, with two goals in the last 10 seconds of the final.

Moncton coach Dave Haines' assessment of the Blue Eagles.

"We felt they were physically stronger than we are," said Haines. "When they beat Brandon, they really beat them to the puck."

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

Moncton defeated top-ranked Brandon Blacks 10-3 Saturday.

16-year-old swimmer shatters four records

RAUMANN also set one world best 4:27 in the 400-metre individual medley and another Canadian mark of 1:47.53 in the 200-metre.

There were a total of 22 records set during the four-day meet.

Victor Davis of Waterloo, Ont., hit his best Canadian time in the 200-metre breaststroke Sunday, swimming it in 2:14.34, compared to the former mark of 2:15.43 set last year by Edmonton's Greg Wurzbach.

TOOK RECORD — University of Calgary's men's relay team churned to another record, clipping more than 10 seconds off the former record with a time of 3:43.91.

Second-place Waterloo also beat the old mark with a time of 3:47.87 last year.

Baumann was clear winner in the men's aggregate but it was harder to call the women's winner.

Kevin Stafford of Vancouver Dolphins claimed the title by winning the women's 50-metre butterfly, finishing ahead of Nancy Cunniff of St. John's.

Stafford wound up with 16 points while Garupick and Carol Cooper of Scarborough each had 15 points.

The two-year-old over-all of Calgary team, coached by Derek Swilling, won over all of the men's teams.

Point Clair of Montreal captured the women's team aggregate.

Cooper of the U.S. with a combined time of 1:19.18 for two runs over the 339-metre course.

Cooper's second run was 1:19.36 and was followed by Marie Epp of West Germany in 1:19.59. Fourth in 1:19.97 was Tamara McKinley of the U.S. who won the giant slalom at Aspen, Colo. March 8.

MARE HOPEFUL — "I'm confident of overtaking Stenmark in the over-all standings," Mahrre said in the men's race. "The second race was a little more difficult than the