WITH LATE GAME GOAL

Lakers win close game

Jeff Armitage scored with six minutes remaining to lift the Vernon Lakers to a 6-5 win over the Revelstoke Rockets, in B.C. Junior Hockey League play, here, Sunday.

It was Armitage's second goal of the night. The Lakers opened up an early 3-0 lead in the game, with first period goals from Dean Bascari, Ron Ford, and Armitage's first. The Rockets, however, clawed their way back, with markers from Jeff Doerr, and two from Dan De Jager.

The Lakers again scored early in the second period, with Richie Odlorne netting a goal at the six second mark. Ron Ford, with his second of the night, upped the count to 5-3, before the Rockets staged another comeback.

TIED SCORE
A shot from Brian Sweeney, and Dan De Jager's third of the night, tied the score at five apiece at the end of the second period.

Armitage's late third period goal gave the Lakers the two points.

The win, Vernon coach Gord McBeth, was not impressed with his team's performance.

"I'm not happy with the way they played," he said, "they only played when they had to."

The game was relatively penalty free, with the Lakers only taking three minors.

The Rockets were credited with six minors and one major penalty.

Next home game for the Lakers is on Friday, when they meet the Port Kaituma at the Civic Arena. The Lakers will also be playing at home, Oct. 18, against Kelowna.
