Win streak is on the line

Vernon Cougars put their four-game win streak on the line tonight, in Oliver, when they battle the Big Horns in North Okanagan Hockey League action.

On Sunday, Cougars entertain Kelowna Packers, at 7 p.m., in the Civic Arena.

Vernon will have Marty Stein, Terry Lowe, and goalie Charlie Briskman back in the line-up after sitting out suspensions. However, three other players will be sidelined tonight.

It isn't often a coach is happy after his club has lost by five goals. But, Vernon Lakers' coach Gord MacBeth was pleased with his team's performance Friday, in Penticton, despite an 8-3 loss to the first-place Knights.

"That is the best game we've played against Penticton this season," MacBeth said. "Our guys really worked hard."
