

OLD STARS PLAY IN VERNON

National Hockey League Old Stars will take on Vernon Cougars, of the North Okanagan Hockey League, in an exhibition game March 5 at the Civic Arena. The Old

Stars include, from left: Fred Standfield, a 14-year veteran who played with four NHL teams; Pierre Pilote, an eight-time all-star; Norm Ullman, seventh ranked scorer in NHL history; and Pat Stapleton, a three-time all-star. Other players on the roster include Jim Pappin, Chico Maki, Brian Glennie, and Glen McKenney. Ad

Teams supply own equipment

Teams participating in league games operated by the Greater Vernon Parks & Recreation Department, must supply their own equipment this year. The department will no longer provide bats, balls, catchers' masks, chest protectors, or bases. However, scorebooks, schedules, and league statistics will still be supplied. For further information phone 545-6035.

Final games

White Valley Hockey League regular season will conclude with two games that have no effect in league standings. On Sunday, Mountain Meadows Mustangs meet Sabres, at 7:30 p.m., and Mustangs tackle National Hotel Raiders, Monday, at 6:30 p.m. Round-robin playoffs get under way next Wednesday, at the Lumby Arena.

Johansen returns

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, winless in eight games, said Friday they have claimed defenceman Trevor Johansen on waivers from Los Angeles Kings. Johansen, 24, won't play for the Leafs in 1977-78. He was traded with Don Ashby to Colorado Rockies in March, 1979, for Paul Gardner. Last October, St. Louis Blues claimed Johansen from the Rockies. Then, a short time later, he was claimed by the Kings.
