Orioles blank Mariners

By The Associated Press

Mike Flanagan was just too strong in the early going this season. On Monday night, he was too good.

"The last four times I've pitched, I've felt too strong," Flanagan said after facing the minimum number of batters in firing a three-hit shutout for his first victory in four decisions as Baltimore Orioles whipped Seattle Mariners 6-0 in American League baseball action.

"In those games, I felt so strong that I tried to overthrow. Tonight, I felt smooth. It was just a matter of slowing myself down."

Elsewhere in the American League, Boston Red Sox trimmed Minnesota Twins 6-2, California Angels nipped Cleveland Indians 5-4, Oakland A's downed New York Yankees 5-4 and Kansas City Royals edged Milwaukee Brewers 3-2.

Bob Dernier stole his sixth and seventh bases of the season in the first inning then doubled home the go-ahead run in the fourth as Philadelphia Phillies defeated San Francisco Giants 5-3 in National League action.

The victory was Philadelphia's second straight, representing the first time the Phillies had won games consecutively this season. Dernier's second stolen base came on the front end of a double steal with Pete Rose, and he and Rose scored the first two runs of the game on Gary Matthews's single.

In other games, Montreal Expos beat San Diego Padres 8-2, New York Mets got by Los Angeles Dodgers 6-3 in 12 innings, Atlanta Braves downed Pittsburgh Pirates 10-4 and St. Louis Cardinals defeated Chicago Cubs 9-4.

In San Diego, Gary Carter and Chris Speier eached homered and Bill Gullickson hurled his first complete game of the season for Montreal. Gullickson struck out 10 and scattered seven hits, waiting out a 22-minute rain delay in the top of the seventh.

Rich Dauer and Gary Roenicke backed Flanagan's pitching with home runs. Dauer hit a two-run homer off rookie Mike Moore in the first inning and singled a run across in the fifth, while Roenicke connected for a three-run homer off Larry Andersen in the eighth.

Despite the three Seattle hits and one walk, Flanagan pitched to the minimum number of batters. He picked one runner off first, another was thrown out trying to stretch a single into a double and two were erased on double plays.

Red Sox 6 Twins 2

Two-run homers by Dave Stapleton and Rick Miller powered red-hot Boston to its fourth consecutive triumph and 12th in the last 13 games, while Chuck Rainey and Bob Stanley combined on a five-hitter. Stapleton's inside-the-park homer capped a four-run first inning after Carl Yastrzemski's two-run double erased a 2-0 Minnesota lead. Miller's homer followed Rich Gedman's double in the fifth.

Angels 5 Indians 4

Don Baylor drove in the tying run with a seventh-inning double and then hit a ninth-inning sacrifice fly for the winning run, while Andy Hassler and Don Aase combined for 7⅓ innings of sparkling relief. Rod Carew led off the ninth with a single off Dan Spillner and Fred Lynn walked. Carew went to third on Reggie Jackson's fly ball and scored on Baylor's drive to deep centre.

Hassler relieved starter Mike Witt in the second and pitched five scoreless innings — he is unscored upon in 13 innings this season — before Aase retired the final seven batters, striking out five.

A's 5 Yankees 2

Singles by Dwayne Murphy and Tony Armas drove in the tying and lead runs as Oakland rallied for four runs against Tommy John and Rich Gossage in the eighth inning and went on to its fifth consecutive victory. The A's had managed six hits and one run until pinch-hitter Jeff Burroughs opened the eighth with an infield hit. Rickey Henderson walked and Murphy, who drove in Oakland's first run with a third-inning triple, singled to score pinch-runner Jimmy Sexton with the tying run.

Matt Keough went the route for the A's, scattering seven hits and walking seven.
