Knights sold

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP) — The B.C. Junior Hockey League will vote later this month on the sale of Penticton Knights to a Penticton group, league president Fred Page said Thursday.

The league had told team owner Chris Parker June 5 that he had to sell the team because he was trying to put a Western Hockey League franchise into Kelowna, which already has a BCJHL franchise.

Page said a vote on the sale will be held July 13 or July 20 when the board of governors meets in Hope, B.C. The sale will require a two-thirds majority for approval.
