

Shuya named to first team

Defenceman Gavin Shuya, of Vernon Lakers, has been named to Interior Division's first team that will compete in the B.C. Junior Hockey League's all-star game, Jan. 20, in Kelowna.

Members of the Interior squad, to be coached by Wayne Naka of Kelowna Buckaroos, were named Wednesday night.

Rounding out the first team are centre Derek Ruppel and winger Brett Hull of Penticton Knights; goalie Troy Hankin of Shuswap Totems; defenceman Tony Savarin and winger Don Barber of Kelowna.

SECOND TEAM

Three Lakers, forwards Gord Simpson and Rob Kossan, and defenceman Mike Enemark, were named to the second team.

Balance of the second squad includes: goalie Norm Foster of Penticton; defenceman Joe Bilodeau of Shuswap Totems; centre Rod Schluter of Kelowna (tied with Kossan); Enzo Caccavo of Kelowna (tie), and Albert Anthony of Shuswap.

Naka will fill out the roster for the game. Each club must be represented by at least two players.

Other Vernon players

MIKE ENEMARK
... second team

nominated for the all-star team by Lakers' Coach Murray Lawrence were goalie Rex Grant; forwards Nick Kapicki and Stacey Wakabayashi.

ON COAST

High-scoring centre Bill Shibicky heads a list of five Abbotsford Flyers selected to the Coastal Division squad.

Shibicky, who leads the league with 41 goals and 48 assists for 89 points, in joined on the first team by defenceman Rob Longfellow and winger Dwight Mathiasen.

Goaltender Scott Bradley and winger Ralph Vos, who leads the league with 56 assists, were Abbotsford players selected to the second squad.

Also on the first Coastal team are goaltender Randy Beres of Richmond Sockeyes, defenceman Rob Kivell of Esquimalt Buccaneers, and winger Brian Burley of Cowichan Capitals.

Centre Cliff Ronning of New Westminster Royals, defenceman Joe Leschuk of New Westminster, defenceman Dave Randall of Cowichan, and winger Derik Sheers of Burnaby Blue Hawks round out the second team.

VERNON GRAD

Leschuk is a graduate of the Vernon Minor Hockey Association.

The Coastal Division Team will be coached by Don Berry of Abbotsford.

Meanwhile, Lakers return to the ice Friday night when they host Revelstoke Rockets. On Saturday, first place Abbotsford makes its only appearance of the season in Vernon.