

Carnival Cup up for grabs

Winter Carnival Cup is on the line tonight at the Civic Arena with Vernon Lakers meeting Shuswap Totems as the challengers to the piece of hardware.

Considering the way Lakers are hurting these days from injuries, if it were any other team competing against them, Coach Murray Lawrence probably would have pulled the plug in favor of a little time to nurse his injured back to health.

However, with the promise of good, clean hockey and the team's pride at stake, the game will get under way, as planned, at 8 p.m. This could well be a preview of what to expect in the first round of the BCJHL Interior Division playoffs.

For the second straight week, Lakers have sat on top of the Interior Division, three points ahead of Penticton Knights and Kelowna Buckaroos.

Kelowna's Brett Hull is the only Interior Division player to crack the top ten scoring leaders. The statistics in that department have been monopolized by Coastal Division players since the outset of the season.

Lakers' defensive duo of Mike Enemark and Gavin Shuya are tied for 13th spot in the overall standings and for third place in the Interior scoring roster. The two defencemen trail only Hull and Derek Ruppel, of the Knights, for that honor.

Lakers' netminder Rex Grant has been dethroned from his top position in the goals against department. He's been replaced by Baker, of Abbotsford, who leads the local puck-stopper by narrow .01 goals-against.

Here are the remaining individual statistics for Vernon Lakers:
