

Flyers lead final series

ABBOTSFORD, B.C. (CP) — Collin Meissner scored at 7:01 of the third period Tuesday to give Abbotsford Flyers a 3-2 win over Kelowna Buckaroos and a 1-0 lead in the teams' best-of-seven B.C. Junior Hockey League final.

Bill Shibicky had tied the score for Abbotsford just 13 seconds prior to Meissner's winning goal.

Dwight Mathiasen added the other Abbotsford goal, while Simon Wheeldon and Scott Shoffstall had goals for Kelowna, who led 2-1 after the first period.

Abbotsford netminder Ken Buker made 36 saves, while Kelowna's Randy Kirby stopped 37 shots on goal.

Kelowna took 14 of 25 penalties.

The second game will be played tonight in Abbotsford.
