

Kelowna loses second game

ABBOTSFORD, B.C. (CP) — Defenceman Joe Leschuk scored twice and Abbotsford Flyers outshot Kelowna Buckaroos 36-16 as the Flyers gained a 6-3 B.C. Junior Hockey League playoff victory Wednesday.

Abbotsford now leads the best-of-seven league final 2-0. The third game is set for Friday in Kelowna.

Other Flyers scorers were Ralph Vos, Bill Shibicky, Dwight Mathiasen and Collin Meissner.

Don Barber, Fred Bower and Simon Wheeldon replied for the Buckaroos, who fell behind 4-2 after one period.

The second period was scoreless.

Abbotsford netminder Ken Buker made 33 saves, while Randy Kirby turned aside 10 shots on the Kelowna net.
