

Vernon players help Abbotsford

Two Vernon Minor Hockey Association graduates helped Abbotsford Flyers capture the B.C. junior A hockey championship series, Saturday, in Abbotsford.

Joe Leschuk and Kevin Poirier each scored a goal as Flyers blasted Williams Lake Mustangs 7-2 to sweep their best-of-three Mowatt Cup series in two games.

Caly Nygard scored twice for Abbotsford while Paul Lelievre, Dwight Mathiason, and Ralph Vos rounded out the scoring.

Rory Seward and Dan Latin replied for Mustangs.

Williams Lake, winner of the Peace-Cariboo League, took 31 of 56 penalty minutes.

Abbotsford goalie Scott Bradley kicked out 32 shots while Duane Wolbeck and Garth Sanderson combined for 42 saves for Mustangs.

Abbotsford defeated Kelowna Buckaroos in the B.C. Junior Hockey League final before taking on Williams Lake. Flyers now meet the Alberta Junior Hockey League champion in the quarter-finals of the Centennial Cup competition.

Spring Run planned

Vernon's first Spring Run—hosted by The Club and sponsored by The Club—will take place this Saturday beginning at 9 a.m.

The race, which starts and ends at The Club, traverses its way around the Silver Star Road, BX Road, Blackrock, Watson, and Pleasant.

There will be four divisions: open, 20-35; Masters division for 36 and over; Junior for those under 18; and a teams division.

The divisions include open for 18-19; 20-35; Masters division for 36 and over; Junior for those under 18; and a teams division.

Registration is by mail, to The Club, Racquet Centre. Entrants must register by 9 a.m.

Entry fee is $10 for those registering after 9 a.m. Fee also includes a sleeve shirt.