

Flyers even series

Dwight Mathiason and Bill Shibicky each scored two goals to lead Abbotsford Flyers to a 7-5 win Sunday over Dauphin Kings to tie the best-of-seven Centennial Cup western final at 2-2.

The Flyers, who led 5-2, after the first period, had goals from Dave Gourlie, Collin Meissner, and Kurt Roufosse.

"We'll win it all in six," said Abbotsford goalie Scott Bradley, who made 35 saves. "I don't think Dauphin can beat us here in Abbotsford."

Flyers edged Dauphin 6-5, Saturday night.

Vernon's Kevin Poirier and Dave Moree had two goals apiece for Abbotsford while Ralph Vos and Richard Holfeld added singles.

Another graduate of the Vernon Minor Hockey Association, defenceman Joe Leschuk, had two assists for Flyers.

All remaining games will be played in Abbotsford.
