

Knights meet Lakers

Penticton Knights make their final regular season appearance against Vernon lakers tonight at Civic arena and there's no doubt Mike Enemark and his charges want to make their arch-rivals feel as unwelcome as possible.

Currently trailing Knights by eight points for first place in the BCJHL Interior Division, Lakers have a pair of games in hand but it's unlikely they will ever overtake Penticton unless they can win all their remaining games with Knights.

Although lakers will be without the services of top scorer Dave Wensley, the firepower they displayed Tuesday night in beating Summerland Buckaroos 15-0 will be more than adequate to carry them through the interim. In fact, if Lakers can muster anywhere near the same kind of strength in all areas they will have no problems against Knights tonight.

Lakers host Buckaroos Sunday night at 7 pm while tonight's contest gets underway at 8 pm.

Meanwhile, in other BCJHL action Friday night, Revelstoke Rangers downed visiting Merritt Centennials 5-3 while a pair of games on the Coast saw langley Eagles blast Burnaby Bluehawks 10-1 and Cowichan Capitals surprised Richmond Sockeyes 8-3.
