

Totems outlast Merritt

By The Canadian Press

Salmon Arm Totems needed sudden-death overtime to edge Merritt Centennials 11-10 in a rescheduled B.C. Junior Hockey League game Wednesday night.

In the only regularly-scheduled game, Langley Eagles stopped Nanaimo Clippers 6-2.

Playing in Logan Lake, Salmon Arm led 3-2 at the end of the first period and 5-4 at the end of the second before the 11-goal third period.

Paul Tory scored the last of his four goals to force the overtime period, and Jim Klenk scored the winner.

Henry Reimer and Darren Servatius scored two goals each for Salmon Arm, which outshot Merritt 34-31. Robbie Klenk and Kelly Argotow added singles.

Brent Demerais scored four goals for Merritt, while Kevin Horne and Pat Ryan added two each. Mike Lapointe and Rob Revell had the others.
