

Lakers host Rangers

Vernon Lakers face three Interior Division rivals, in three days, this weekend.

Lakers host Revelstoke Rangers, tonight, and Penticton Knights, Saturday, before travelling to Salmon Arm, Sunday.

Vernon has been idle since losing to the first place Knights 13-5, last Friday, in Penticton.

Lakers' Coach Mike Enemark said his club has used the past week to learn a few new things. "We've spent some extra time on special teams (penalty killing and power play) in practice," Enemark said. "We're trying to correct some of the mistakes we made in Penticton."

Frank Romeo, acquired recently by Lakers from Revelstoke, will start in goal tonight against his former teammates.

Enemark said, "Revelstoke has been playing well in the past couple weeks so we can't afford to look past them to Saturday's game with Penticton."

Lakers have planned two promotions this weekend. Two-for-One Night, tonight, gives fans two admissions for the price of one. Noisemaker Night, Saturday, gives fans a $1 discount if they take a noisemaker to the game.

Face-off both nights is at 8 p.m.

Meanwhile, in Thursday's lone B.C. Junior Hockey League game, Jim Hochstetter scored 1:02 into overtime to give Burnaby Bluehawks a 6-5 victory over Abbotsford Flyers.

Bluehawks are undefeated in their last 12 games and lead the Coast Division by one point over Langley Eagles.
