

NICK KAPICKI
... centre

GREG KOWAL
... left wing

Two Lakers are all-stars

Only two members of the second place Vernon Lakers have been named to the Interior Division Team for the upcoming B.C. Junior Hockey League All-star Game.

Centre Nick Kapicki and left winger Gret Kowal will represent Lakers in the contest, Jan. 17, at the Vernon Civic Arena.

The 20-member squad will be coached by Rick Kozuback, of first place Penticton Knights.

Vernon Lakers' General Manager Vern Dye said he is disappointed that more of his players weren't picked for the all-star team. "We had at least one or two more players who deserve to play in the all-star game," Dye said. "There was a lot of politicking going on during the selections."

Penticton dominates the club with seven players while third place Summerland Buckaroos placed five players on the roster.

The team includes:

FIRST TEAM: Goalie Derek Pizzey, Penticton; defencemen Ian Kidd, Penticton, and Ron Lyer, Summerland; forwards Joe Murphy and Murray Winnicki, Penticton, and Shawn Pettyjohn, Summerland.

SECOND TEAM: Goalie Dean Garnett, Summerland; defencemen Ron Shervatius, Salmon Arm and Derek Mayer, Penticton; forwards Todd Brost and Rod Ware, Penticton, and Craig Beddard, Summerland.

ADDITIONS: Maybin and Kinley, Revelstoke; Kapicki and Kowal, Vernon; Torrenes and Bololowski, Merritt; Mowery, Summerland; and Klenk, Salmon Arm.

Great trip for Sockeyes

Richmond Sockeyes were undefeated on a three-game weekend swing through the B.C. Junior Hockey League's Interior Division.

After battling to a 3-3 draw with Vernon Lakers, Friday, Sockeyes defeated Revelstoke Rangers 2-1 and Salmon Arm Totems 12-4.

In Revelstoke, Ben Biagioni's goal at 16:07 of the second period proved to be the winner.

On Sunday, in Salmon Arm, Totems Coach Don Stephen was fired immediately after the game by officials of the community society which runs the club. Totems are in last place in the Interior Division with only four victories in 27 games.

A new coach is expected to be named before Salmon Arm's next home game Jan. 6.

Keith Street was the top scorer for Richmond with three goals while Richard Deitrich added a pair.

In other weekend action, Burnaby Bluehawks trounced Sidney Capitals 9-4, Abbotsford Flyers blasted Sidney 9-1, and Merritt Centennials edged Totems 8-6.

Kevin Cheveldave scored three goals to pace Centennials past Salmon Arm.