

Lakers dump lowly Totems

Vernon Lakers rebounded from a 4-2 loss in Merritt, Friday night, with a 7-4 victory over Totems, Sunday night, in Salmon Arm.

The win leaves the positions of the two teams unchanged in the B.C. Junior Hockey League's Interior Division. Lakers occupy second place while Totems remain in the cellar.

Defenceman Tony Christie scored twice to pace Lakers. Nick Kapicki, leading point-getter for the local club, scored once while forward Stacy Hartnell, Shannon Pohl, Frank Dutoff and defenceman Murray Baron also had singles.

Jeff Vilac scored twice for Totems, who trailer Lakers 3-2 and 6-2 by periods. Paul Lemaire and Terrence Head also had goals in a losing cause.

Lakers have until Friday before their next league action when they entertain Revelstoke Rangers, at Civic Arena. Saturday night, Penticton Knights are in town and Sunday the club returns to Salmon Arm for a third game of the weekend.

In other BCJHL action Sunday night, Revelstoke defeated hometown Richmond Sockeyes 5-4, Penticton beat Merritt 9-5, and Langley downed Sidney 7-4.

The win for Revelstoke was a complete turnaround from Saturday's action which saw the Interior club get hammered 12-0 by Abbotsford Flyers. It was their fourth game in as many nights.

In other action Saturday night, Langley Eagles skated to a 10-3 victory over Nanaimo Clippers while Penticton edged Salmon Arm 9-7.
