MOORES REPLACED

Mike Enemark named head coach

CARNIVAL FITNESS CHALLENGE

The Vernon Winter Carnival Fitness Challenge took place last weekend at The Body Shop in downtown Vernon with a large number of male and female participants. At left, Randeen Hoover races against the clock in the obstacle course while at right, Dale Haberstock bench presses 135 lbs. while Ian Horner spots for him. The Fitness Challenge consisted of tests for strength, flexibility, and endurance in accordance with age and weight to produce an overall winner in male and female categories.

Carl Enemark, president of Vernon Lakers Junior A hockey Club, announced today that effective immediately, Mike Enemark, his son, will take over the position of head coach.

Enemark replaces former Head Coach Don Moores who was fired Sunday by the club president.

MIKE ENEMARK

Lakers currently occupy third place in the B.C. Junior Hockey League Interior Division, behind Penticton Knights and Kelowna packers.

Moores, who replaced Mike Enemark in the coaching department in November, 1984, had taken the club to a record of 25-16-3 so far this campaign with eight regular season games remaining.

Enemark, who coached for slightly less than one and one half seasons, after replacing Chuck Tapp, has a lifetime record of 52-25-1 with the club.

Although the club had two assistant coaches this season, Dave Caldow and Murray Batty, neither expressed any desire to continue in their capacity following the removal of Moores, who is a Kamloops resident and commuted between the two centres in his coaching role.

"It boiled down to who was available to do the job," suggested the elder Enemark. "The other two assistant coaches weren't too enthusiastic about taking the job so it fell on Mike."

"It would have been tough for me to act as head coach due to my work commitments," explained Caldow who works for the B.C. Liquor Control Board.

Carl Enemark, meanwhile, is adamant that his son is capable of doing the job for the remainder of the season.

"He (Mike) has been running all our day time practices this year so he knows all the boys personally," Carl said. "He's got some extra pressure on him because he's my son but he's got some additional experience, he's a little older now, and he's ready to do the job."

Serving as assistant coach will be Scott Young, a 21-year-old former player who has no coaching experience.

The new coaching staff will get a baptism by fire tonight as Lakers head into Penticton to take on division-leading Knights. The club has not won a game in Penticton for more than three seasons and lost their last encounter in overtime.

Carl Enemark feels the club has sufficient talent to play much more consistently than they have in recent weeks. The team has gone 6-8-2 since the beginning of December.

"This is the best club we've had since I've owned the team," he said. "Maybe not quite as offensively minded, but certainly the best club defensively."

Sellout crowd cheers O'Sullivan

TORONTO (CP) — Like a gladiator coming home after conquering the enemy, Shawn O'Sullivan returned to Toronto on Monday to a hero's welcome.

After his professional boxing career was launched in October 1984 at the Harbor Castle Hilton hotel in Toronto, brilliant amateur career in which he ran up a 94-6 record with 68 knockouts.

"I was simply responding to his offensive action and landed a well-placed shot."
