KELOWNA WHIPS MERRITT

Packers host Lakers

Vernon Lakers travel to Rutland to meet the red-hot Kelowna Packers in B.C. Junior Hockey League action, Sunday night.

Packers trounced Merritt Warriors 15-3, Friday night. The last time Lakers took on the powerful Kelowna squad, Nov. 8, they were blasted 9-0.

On Friday, Jay Luknowsky, Pat Mangold, and Kelly Hurd scored three goals each for the Packers. Kevin Harder tallied twice while Stan Marple, Alan Schuler, Brent Mowery, and Kerry Russell added singles.

In other BCJHL action Friday, Langley Eagles downed Abbotsford Falcons 7-4 and Nanaimo Clippers shutout Penticton Knights 5-0.

In Nanaimo, goaltender Drew Smith stopped 21 shots to earn the shutout.

Mike Knapton scored twice and added two assists for Nanaimo, which held period leads of 1-0 and 2-0. Single goals came from Corky Parkes, Laurence Amy and Sean Stotts.

The Clippers killed off two five-minute major penalties in the third period and held Penticton to only three shots during those two power plays.

Knights goaltender Jamie Loewen made 36 saves for the Interior Division club.

In games tonight, Langley plays the Flyers at Delta, Penticton travels to Victoria to play the Whalers and the Warriors get a chance to redeem themselves at Summerland in a game with the Buckaroos.

LOOK BACK FIVE YEARS

NOV., 1981

The B.C. Junior Hockey League is cracking down on violence in the game. Walt Harris, executive manager of the Interior Division of the BCJHL, announced today new rules aimed at discouraging fighting. Anyone engaging in a fight during a BCJHL game from now on will be automatically ejected from the game.
