SCOTT LEADS SCORING RACE

As the B.C. Junior Hockey League heads into its final weekend, Kevin Scott of Vernon Lakers appears to be a good bet to win the league scoring championship.

Statistics released by the BCJHL, Wednesday, show the slock centre has 122 points, five more than Lance Momotani, of Delta Flyers. Kevin Taillefter, of Kelowna Packers, ranks third with 114 points.

All three players have two games remaining.

Vernon concludes its regular season, at home, against Penticton Knights, Friday, and Kelowna, Saturday.

In the lone BCJHL game Wednesday, Richmond's Dean Rutledge scored two goals as the Sockeyes defeated Langley Eagles 5-2.

BCJHL statistics to Feb. 17 are:

SPORTS BRIEFS

Hartnells quit Penticton Knights

Twin brothers Stacey and Sean Hartnell have quit Penticton Knights, of the B.C. Junior Hockey League. The Hartnells, who both started the 1986-87 season with Vernon Lakers, have accepted four-year scholarships from Ohio State University. The brothers had not played a game with Penticton since their 20th birthdays last month, but did not officially leave the team until Wednesday. Their decision was based on a National Collegiate Athletic Association rule that stipulates anyone who plays junior hockey after their 20th birthday will lose one-year of college athletic eligibility.
