Broncos tie series

Mike Gaber scored at 3:31 of overtime Tuesday night to give Humboldt Broncos a 4-3 victory over the Richmond Sockeyes and new life in their Centennial Cup playoff series. The victory forced a seventh and deciding game in the Western Canada final in Richmond Wednesday night. Bill McDougall led the Broncos with two goals and Curtis Chamberlin was the other marksman for Humboldt which trailed 1-0 at the end of the first period and was tied 2-2 entering the third period. Paul Rutherford led Sockeyes with two goals while Dave Tomlinson added the other goal for Richmond.
