Sockeyes defeat Pembroke

HUMBOLDT, Sask. (CP) — The Richmond Sockeyes exploded for three goals in the third period to beat the Pembroke Lumber Kings 4-1 Monday night in the Centennial Cup junior A hockey championship tournament.

The win gave the British Columbia champions a 2-0 record in the round-robin portion of the tournament, and a share of first place with the Saskatchewan champions, Humboldt Broncos.

It was the second straight loss for the Lumber Kings, Ontario's representatives in the four-team tournament. Dartmouth Fuel Kids from British Columbia, the other team in the tournament, are also 0-2.

Dave Tomlinson led Richmond with two goals, while Brian Kozak and Stan Czenczek scored one each. Czenczek scored the winning goal at 6:35 of the third period, after his team held a 1-0 lead through the first two frames.

George Dupont scored for the Lumber Kings, who were outshot 26-25. The Sockeyes were assessed 11 of 15 minor penalties.

The teams that finish second and third in the round-robin portion of the tournament meet in a semifinal game Thursday night. The winner plays the team that finishes first after round-robin play.
