

DANNY GARE STEVE TAMBELLINI

BROTHERS TO PLAY IN GAME

Three players have been added to the rosters of the teams that will participate in the Charity Ball Hockey Game, Saturday night, in the Vernon Civic Arena.

Team NHL will meet the Junior All-stars, with proceeds going to the Vernon Junior Hockey Scholarship Fund and the Vernon Special Olympics. The feature contest will be preceded by a brief game between local media personalities and the Special Olympics Team.

Brothers Gregg and Grant Delcourt from Spokane Chiefs, of the Western Hockey League, will line-up with the Junior All-stars. Grant was selected by Buffalo Sabres in the 1986 NHL amateur draft.

The Team NHL roster has been bolstered by the addition of Al Young, who starred with Vernon Lakers during the 1986-87 B.C. Junior Hockey League season. Young recently signed a contract with Regensbrug of the West German Hockey League's second division.

Game time is 7 p.m. Following the game a social gathering is scheduled in the Civic Arena concession area. Advance tickets are available at Sun Valley Sports, Al's Esso Service, and Ernie's Self-serve Esso.

The rosters, as announced by the Lakers, include:

TEAM NHL: Danny Gare and goalie Darryl Reaugh, Edmonton Oilers; Eddie Johnstone and Jeff Sharples, Detroit Red Wings; Doug Lidster and Steve Tambellini, Vancouver Canucks; Pat Price, New York Rangers; Ray Ferraro, Hartford Whalers; Mark Ferner, Buffalo Sabres; Greg Adams and Greg Evtushevski, New Jersey Devils; Ryan Stewart, Portland Winter Hawks (drafted by Winnipeg Jets); and Al Young, Regensbrug, Germany.

JUNIOR ALL-STARS: Brent Gilchrist, Gregg Delcourt and Grant Delcourt, Spokane Chiefs; Dennis Holland, Troy Mick, Jeff Finley, and Jay Stark, Portland Winter Hawks; Mark Greyeyes, Jason Palmer, Keith Chase, Wes Elliott, Bob Dever, Jason Fox. and Greg Olson, Vernon Lakers; Dane Jackson and Adrian Markin, Castlegar Rebels; Dallas Drake and Martin Jensen, Rossland Warriors; and Jurgen Gemsa, Kamloops midgets.