SPORTS BRIEFS

Lakers cut three after tune-up tilt

There are 43 candidates left in the Vernon Lakers camp following the team's final intra-squad game Thursday night, a game won 9-5 by the Blues over the Green. Cut following the game were left wingers Don Borgeson of Fort Spring, Colorado, and another left winger, Jay Bruce of Calgary. Trail native Andrew Prentice, a defenceman, was also released after Thursday night's game. Six or seven players will be cut after tonight's exhibition game against the Kelowna Packers in the Rutland Arena. Duane Dennis potted a pair of goals for the Blues Thursday night, while Bart Kuntz of Fort St. John scored twice for Green. Scott Bailey allowed only one goal for the Blues and caught the eye of Lakers Head Coach Ernie Gare. Also catching the coaches eye was Trail right winger Dave Oliver. Kelowna meets Vernon Saturday night at the Civic Arena and the Lakers travel to Enderby Sunday night to meet the Salmon Arm Tigers.